“The only constant is change.” - Heraclitus

...which means, please ask what’s available, and be willing to be surprised!

Farmers’ Oysters P50

Succulent and sourced fresh everyday, heated with butter, garlic and parsley.

Ubiquitous French Fries P80

Kashmiri Chili Sausage P88

Served on a bed of white onion sautéed in butter and Kashmiri chili.

Desert Exile Beef Stew P108

Inspired by a tours in the sandbox. Only for the brave: chunks of beef lovingly simmered in a stew of Arabic spices and olives.

Chili con Carne P108

Prepared with an unexpected ingredient to round off the bite...guess what it is and how many legs it crawls on?

Split Banger and Mash P128

Homemade sausage split and served on top of mashed whole potatoes and made-from-scratch gravy.

Grilled Pork Strips P128

Like bacon, but better (and really, is there anything better than bacon?!)—marinated in spices and made to go perfectly with beer.

Bagnet Blachan P128

Deep fried pork recipe born in Ilocos Sur, simmered in belacan (shrimp paste) if you’re Malaysian, or terasi, if you’re Indonesian. Served with bagoong-chili dressing.

Fish-Fish-and-Chips (FFC) P188

Fish fillets, fried crisp and golden in Coors beer batter, accompanied by dilis and fries and served the English way: with vinegar as dip.
